Liability Waiver

I, the undersigned, for myself, my heirs, administrators and assigns, do hereby covenant and agree as follows, I hereby assume all risk of any personal injury which may result from activities in which I engage at the 2010 New Mexico AAU Championship including supervised and unsupervised activities; that I for myself, my heirs, administrators and assigns, do hereby release Master Antionette Chavez, West Mesa High School, all coaches, officials, individually or collectively, from all liability, including claims at law or in equity for any injury, fatal or otherwise, mental or emotional damages, which may result directly or indirectly from my traveling to, participating, or returning from set tournament or related functions. I understand that Tae Kwon Do/Martial Arts is a contact sport with a risk of serious injury, possibly death, to myself, or my children who may enter said tournament. I also assume all risk of my personal property at the tournament premises if lost or stolen. I also understand that there are no refunds.

I have read and fully understand the above waiver and agree with its terms.
